

Words to ponder

I allow myself to be drawn into a realisation that Jesus brings me before the Father, that, even before I think of praying, my name is in the heart of God.

A way to start your day, perhaps?